INVITATION FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF CÓRDOBA, ARGENTINA, TO THE III LAC-EU ACADEMIC SUMMIT, APRIL 12th and 13th, 2018

24th of January of 2018

Dear colleagues from Latin America, the Caribbean and the European Union:

We are attaching the letter from the Rector of the University of Córdoba (Argentina), Dr. Hugo Juri, who has accepted the FAP ALC-UE proposal to be the Honorary President of the III Latin American and the Caribbean - European Union Academic Summit that his University will organize on 12th and 13th April 2018.

The III Latin America and the Caribbean - European Union Academic Summit will continue the process of creating the Euro-Latin American and Caribbean Area of Higher Education, Science, Technology and Innovation, in accordance with Chapter 9 of the CELAC-EU Action Plan. This meeting will constitute a qualitative leap with respect to the two previous Summits, held in Santiago de Chile (January 2013) and Brussels (June 2015), as it will present a specific proposal and a road map to the authorities of both regions.

I wish to invite you to be part of a historic moment, working together, as a bi-regional university community and Academic Pillar of the Strategic Association of Latin America, the Caribbean and the European Union, so that in this III Summit we can make decisive progress towards the goal outlined, that is, reinforcing the commitment to launch the Bi-regional University Integration Process in order to create the Euro-Latin American and Caribbean Common Area for Higher Education, Science, Technology and Innovation.

Details regarding logistics and program will be sent in the coming days.

Kind regards,

Fernando Galván
Rector of the University of Alcalá (Spain)
President of FAP ALC-UE
